Remembrance Sunday

For the Fallen

Poem by Robert Laurence Binyon, published in The Times newspaper on 21st September 1914.

With proud thanksgiving, a mother for her children,
England mourns for her dead across the sea.
Flesh of her flesh they were, spirit of her spirit,
Fallen in the cause of the free.

Solemn the drums thrill: Death august and royal
Sings sorrow up into immortal spheres.
There is music in the midst of desolation
And a glory that shines upon our tears.

They went with songs to the battle, they were young,
Straight of limb, true of eye, steady and aglow.
They were staunch to the end against odds uncounted,
They fell with their faces to the foe.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

They mingle not with their laughing comrades again;
They sit no more at familiar tables of home;
They have no lot in our labour of the day-time;
They sleep beyond England's foam.

But where our desires are and our hopes profound,
Felt as a well-spring that is hidden from sight,
To the innermost heart of their own land they are known
As the stars are known to the Night;

As the stars that shall be bright when we are dust,
Moving in marches upon the heavenly plain,
As the stars that are starry in the time of our darkness,
To the end, to the end, they remain.

Saint Padre Pio Prayer Group

St. Padre Pio was a Franciscan friar, priest and stigmatist. Many miracles as well as spiritual and physical healings are attributed to this humble friar who lived from 1887 – 1968. His Franciscan spirituality is characterized by a life of poverty, love of nature, and the giving of charity to those in need. As a spiritual director and guide he had five rules for spiritual growth: weekly confession, daily Communion, spiritual reading, meditation, and an examination of conscience. In following the example of St. Padre Pio, Sacred Heart Parish will be founding a St. Padre Pio Prayer Group. The first meeting will take place on Wednesday, 2nd of December at 7:30 pm in the parish church.

Remembrance Sunday

In Flanders Fields

Poem by Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae a Canadian soldier and physician of the First World War.

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

Parishioners of Sacred Heart Church are asked to remember in silence those who have made the supreme sacrifice in defence of freedom and for peace in the world. May they rest in the peace of Christ.

November – Month for Holy Souls

The Catholic Church has always dedicated the month of November as a time for each of us to remember and pray for the holy souls. Parishioners are reminded that having a Mass said for a holy soul is the best way to pray for a deceased family member or friend. Another way to remember a holy soul is to dedicate a sanctuary lamp. For more information on requesting a Mass for a holy soul or having a sanctuary lamp dedicated for a deceased loved one, you are asked to contact the parish office

Book of Remembrance for Holy Souls

During the month of November there will be a Book of Remembrance for the holy souls available in the Sacred Heart Chapel for anyone who would like to write the names of deceased loved ones. The Book of Remembrance with all of the names of the holy souls contained therein will be remembered at the Mass on the last day of the month of November.

Confessions & Adoration

Please note the following changes for Wednesdays:

11am – 12 noon Confessions & Adoration
12:15pm Holy Mass & Devotions to St Joseph
1pm – 2pm Holy Rosary & Adoration

ACTIVITIES...
Some dates for your diary!

Formation for Extra-Ordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

The 2nd session of formation for Extra-ordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EMHC) will be held on Saturday, the 14th of November beginning at 9:30 am in the parish office. EMHCs are asked to bring their Holy Communion prayer book for visiting the sick and housebound. Those persons who missed the first formation session for EMHCs are asked to attend this second session. Only those persons who have attended the formation sessions will be permitted to become EMHC.

Sacred Heart Parish Pre-Christmas Dinner 3rd December

Parishioners and friends of Sacred Heart Parish are all reminded to send their forms and deposit, for the pre-Christmas dinner at the Hotel Miramar, in to the parish office as soon as possible. The full and final payment of £20 must be received to the parish office no later than Monday 30th November 2015. If you have collected a menu but are unable to attend please either return the menu to the parish office or let the parish office know. Thank you

Coming Soon – Sacred Heart TV

Parishioners and friends of Sacred Heart Church may have the opportunity to view all masses and related events live through our website. At this time the parish is testing a process where all events in the church are streamed live over the internet. If the test works Sacred Heart TV will be part of our parish outreach and mission activities. This is an exciting time for our parish as this tool of communication for evangelisation has endless possibilities. More information on Sacred Heart TV will be forthcoming in the next few weeks. In the meantime if you are interested in assisting with this please contact the parish office.

Advent Confessions & Adoration

Soon the holy and penitential season of Advent will be upon us. Advent is a time of waiting and preparation for the coming of the Lord. In order to prepare ourselves before the Christmas, Sacred Heart Parish will be having confessions, the holy Rosary and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament each Friday evening during the season of Advent in the parish church. The schedule is as follows:

Friday, 4th December 7:00pm to 8:00pm
Friday, 11th December 7:00pm to 8:00pm
Friday, 18th December 7:00pm to 8:00pm

Church Cleaners Needed

We are in great need of more cleaners to help with cleaning the church every week. Our hope is to have a rota system for cleaning the church on various days of the week. If you are available to help and clean the church at a time that suits your personal schedule please contact the parish office for more information.

Mature Altar Servers Wanted

We are seeking to recruit and train mature individuals as altar servers. If you would like to find out more, please contact the Parish.

SACRAMENTS...
First Holy Communion 2016 Programme starts soon

Are any of your children or grandchildren ready to prepare for First Holy Communion?

Our 2016 First Holy Communion programme starts with Registration after mass on 5th (5pm), 6th (8am, 10:30am, 4pm) and 12th (5pm), 13th December (8am, 10:30am, 4pm). We follow a recognised programme which previous groups have found very enjoyable and have an excellent team of Catechists all of whom have been approved by Diocesan Safeguarding procedures to work with children.

Registration forms and the programme calendar are available at the back of the Church or downloadable from the parish website at www.sac-heart.org.

Catechist contacts: Alison & Mike Davis 07917 692163 email: mikedavis1951@me.com.

SACRED HEART CHURCH SHOP

See below for Opening Times

Located in the Church Hall, on Richmond Hill

It is this time of year when we think of presents for our loved ones, in particular our children or grandchildren and perhaps a Bible might be a small suitable gift as well as the toys and clothes. Our brand new stock includes Children's Bibles to suit all ages from Baby's First Bible to older children's versions, usually well illustrated. We have a very good selection of religious Christmas cards, in boxes, packets and singles. Also a bargain is Religious Christmas Wrapping Paper at just 20p a sheet – while stocks last! Advent Calendars from 50p.

We would love to see you and show you what a good selection of inexpensive Christmas and regular devotional items we have.

OPEN: Occasional Saturdays after 12.15pm Mass
Saturday after 5pm Vigil Mass – please see Maria Santos
Sunday from 11:30am to 12:30pm
