FIFTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME – 12 JULY 2015
Year (B) Volume 2 Parish Mass Book Page 106 (Psalter week 3)

FROM DEACON ROGER CARR-JONES: Pope Francis reminds us that "We all have a duty to do good", which echoes the theme of today's gospel. To let go of material things to depend solely on God's providence and the generosity of others is a 'big ask' and one that we might feel uncomfortable with. We can, however, all do good. We all like to know that we enjoy some creature comforts; that we have a roof over our heads and food in the fridge. That is perfectly natural. So, let us see this story from the other direction. How would we react if someone knocked on our door seeking help? How have we felt when someone closed the door on us? If we have known times when money was tight and the challenge of feeding a family, has this changed how we relate to those in need. If we enjoy plenty do we keep it to ourselves? Christ is asking us if we really prepared to share of our surplus and open our hearts to those who are in need: in our parish, to the migrant, the refugee and social outcasts. If our door is closed then so too is our heart.

STUDENT/YOUTH FELLOWSHIP: We usually meet after 4pm Mass every Sunday. This Sunday please join us to listen to a guest speaker at a Praying Workshop ! All very welcome
