ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – 14 JUNE 2015
Year (B) Volume 2 Parish Mass Book Page 95 (Psalter week 3)

FROM THE PARISH PRIEST: all change takes place with a certain amount of difficulty because change, if it is good, means growth. When a priest leaves a Parish he hopes that he leaves the Community as one which will allow itself to develop and grow under God; he prays that he has left a fertile field which the next priest, together with his people, may reap a harvest for the Lord. Harvest time is one of great rejoicing as the harvest is gathered in, and I have to confess that although I am really sad about leaving, I cannot help but rejoice at the rich harvest we have gathered together at Sacred Heart. So much has been achieved and so much more will be achieved. I go from here this weekend for my hospital appointment much strengthened by your prayers and I know that you will rally around Fr Ron, and all those who will be carrying the weight of the Parish, until Fr John comes as Parish Priest. Thank you for allowing me to wander through the beautiful field of this Parish. It is a place I shall not forget…. Thanks to you it is a place where I encountered God. Fr Bruce
